HISTORICAL SKETCH

HISTORICAL SKETCH

IN the year 1639, Roger Ludlow, a magistrate of the colony of Connecticut, came from Windsor with a few families to what was then called by the Indians Unquowa, and began the settlement of the town of Fairfield. These first settlers were soon joined by others from Concord and Watertown, Massachusetts. Fearing God, they at once formed a church, known in the beginning as "The First Church of Christ in Fairfield," and afterwards as "The First Church of Christ in Fairfield of the Congregational Order." The following were the first nine pastors of this church: John Jones, 1644-1664; Samuel Wakeman, 1665-1692; Joseph Webb, 1694-1732; Noah Hobart, 1733-1773; Andrew Eliot, 1774-1805; Heman Humphrey, 1807-1817; Nathaniel Hewit, 1818-1827; John Hunter, 1828-1834; Lyman Hotchkiss Atwater, 1835-1854.

Southport was for many years a part of the Fairfield parish. The people of Southport, having built a meeting-house in their own village in 1841, resolved at a meeting held February 18, 1843, to form a new church, and therefore called a council of the five neighboring churches for March 7, 1843. This council organized "The Southport Congregational Church," with a membership of twenty-eight. The sermon in the afternoon was by the Rev. Lyman Hotchkiss Atwater, of Fairfield. In the evening the meeting-house was set apart to the worship of God, the Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Hewit, of Bridgeport, preaching the dedication sermon. The church was received into the Fairfield West Consociation June 6, 1843.

Samuel John Mills Merwin was ordained the first pastor of the church December 18, 1844. He served the church more than fourteen years, and was dismissed at his own request May 3, 1859. He died September 12, 1888, aged 68 years.

The Rev. Charles Edward Lindsley was installed pastor of the church February 29, 1860. By his own desire he was dismissed February 16, 1869. He died May 25, 1897, aged 79 years.

The Rev. George Edwards Hill was installed pastor March 22, 1870. During his ministry the old meeting-house was removed, and a stone house of worship built in its place. This was dedicated February 2, 1876. The sermon from Haggai 2:9 was preached by the Rev. Samuel John Mills Merwin, other parts in the service being taken by the Rev. Dr. Lyman Hotchkiss Atwater, the Rev. Charles Edward Lindsley, and the Rev. George Edwards Hill. Near the end of that year Mr. Hill resigned, and he was dismissed December 27, 1876. He died March 5, 1915, aged 90 years.

William Henry Holman was called October 2, 1877, to supply the pulpit for one year, and he began work with the church December 1, 1877. A call to the pastorate was given him May 14, 1878, and he was ordained the minister of the church June 12, 1878. June 14, 1915, he tendered his resignation, to take effect December 1, 1915, after thirty-eight years of continuous service. The council for dismission met October 19, 1915.

THE
AND
THE COVENANT

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH

WE believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker and Ruler of heaven and earth; who so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have eternal life:

And in Jesus Christ, his Son, our Lord; who was in the beginning with God, and was God; who loved us, and for our salvation came down from heaven, became man, suffered, and died on the cross; through whose blood we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins; who rose from the dead, went up into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father; whence he shall come again to judge the living and the dead:

And in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter; by whom the scriptures were given; who renews and sanctifies the heart, and keeps us in the way that leadeth unto life; who with the Father and the Son, together one God, is alone to be worshipped, and supremely to be loved.

We believe in the church of God, the household of the faith; in baptism, and the communion of the body and blood of Christ; and we wait for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE COVENANT

BEFORE God, angels, and men, you avow the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, to be your God. You take the word of God to be the rule of your life. Trusting in him who has said, My grace is sufficient for thee, you promise to follow Christ in all things. You acknowledge this to be a true church of Christ, and you covenant to seek its purity, peace, and well-being.

We, on our part, rejoicing in your confession and covenant, welcome you to our fellowship. We break with you this bread of life, and share with you this cup of blessing. We promise to love you and pray for you always, and to admonish, cheer, and comfort you, as we shall see your need.

The Lord bless you, and keep you. The Lord make his face shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. The Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

BY-LAWS

BY-LAWS

I. The officers of the Southport Congregational Church for the conduct of its affairs other than secular shall consist of a Minister, Deacons, a Standing Committee, a Superintendent of the Sunday-school, a Registrar, and an Assistant Treasurer. The officers for the transaction of its secular business shall consist of a Business Committee, a Music Committee, a House Committee, a Treasurer, and a Clerk. All of the above officers shall be members of the corporation.

II. All meetings of the corporation for other than secular purposes shall be known as Church Meetings. The time for holding church meetings shall be at the close of the Sunday morning service, except that matters pertaining solely to the meetings for prayer may be acted upon at the close of such meetings. The annual church meeting for the election and approval of officers and for receiving and acting upon reports shall be held on the last Sunday in December. Special church meetings may be called at any time when in the judgment of the pastor or the deacons it is expedient, and they shall be called upon the written request of any five members of the church of legal age. The minister shall be, ex officio, moderator of all church meetings, and only members of the church who are of legal age shall vote therein.

Notice of all church meetings, whenever possible, shall be published in the calendar or announced from the pulpit on the previous Sunday, and shall state the object of the meeting.

III. There shall be four Deacons, who shall be elected biennially in turn and shall hold office for eight years.

IV. The Standing Committee shall consist of the minister, deacons, superintendent of the Sunday-school, registrar, assistant treasurer, and six additional members. These six, of whom at least three shall be women, shall serve for one year, and until their successors are elected and accept office.

It shall be the duty of this committee to examine all persons who may wish to unite with the church, and to recommend them to the church if they shall deem them worthy to become members.

Candidates recommended for admission to the church on confession of their faith in Christ shall stand propounded for at least two weeks previous to Communion, and, unless objection be made to their admission, shall then be received.

Every member of the church removing from its communion will be expected to take a letter of dismission and recommendation to the church with which he worships within one year from the time of such removal, or give satisfactory reason for not doing so to the standing committee.

When any member of the church, having ceased to attend its services for one year, shall fail to give satisfactory reason therefor upon application by the standing committee, or cannot be found after due inquiry, the committee is authorized to drop his name from the roll of the church. In such case the word "Dropped" shall be written opposite the name on the record, together with the date and reason therefor.

When any member of a sister church shall statedly worship and commune with this church for more than one year, without bringing his letter to us or giving satisfactory reason for not doing so, it shall be the duty of the standing committee to notify the church to which he belongs of that fact.

The standing committee shall have charge of the free bed in the Bridgeport Hospital which is subject to the control of this church.

The standing committee shall arrange for the supply of the pulpit during the minister's vacation at such expense as shall be fixed by the business committee.

V. The Superintendent of the Sunday-school shall be elected annually by the teachers, subject to the approval of the church. He shall make a report on the condition of the school at the annual church meeting.

VI. The Registrar shall record the doings of all church meetings. He shall give notice of election to all persons chosen in such meetings to any office or function. He shall sign credentials of delegates chosen, and letters of dismission granted by vote of the church, and shall also send notice of such dismissions to the churches addressed. He shall record in the register of the church all admissions and removals with the date and manner of each, and also all baptisms. He shall serve for one year, and shall make a report at the annual church meeting.

VII. The Assistant Treasurer shall receive all contributions for charitable objects or societies, and shall pay over the same to the authorized treasurers or agents. He shall serve for one year, and shall make a duly audited report at the annual church meeting.

VIII. The officers for the transaction of the secular business of the corporation shall be elected at the annual business meeting and shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and accept office.

IX. The Business Committee shall consist of six persons including, ex officio, the treasurer. It shall be the duty of this committee to care for and control the property of the corporation, procure funds for its necessary expenses, discharge its business obligations, and manage its secular affairs, except that none of its property shall be sold or incumbered without an express vote of the corporation.

X. The Music Committee shall consist of three persons. It shall be the duty of this committee to procure vocal and instrumental music for the church services, and instrumental music for the religious meetings in the chapel, and to superintend the same; subject, however, as to the expenditure therefor, to the approval of the business committee.

XI. The House Committee shall consist of three women. It shall be the duty of this committee to see that the church building is kept clean and in good order.

XII. The Treasurer shall have charge of the invested funds of the church and of its income, and shall disburse the latter under the direction of the business committee. He shall annually make duly audited reports to the church of all the transactions of his office. He shall give to the church, at its expense, a surety company bond in the sum of five thousand dollars.

XIII. The Clerk shall issue the calls for all business meetings, and record the doings thereof.

XIV. A vacancy occurring during the year in the office of clerk or treasurer shall be filled by the business committee, and a vacancy occurring in any committee shall be filled by the remaining members thereof.

XV. The annual business meeting shall be held in the chapel at half past three o'clock in the afternoon of the last Monday in June. At this meeting the pews shall be rented, and in the absence of a previous written notice to the treasurer each seat-holder or pew-holder will be deemed to bid the same price for his sitting or pew for the ensuing year as for the year then passed, and if no higher bid is made it will be considered rented at that price to such person.

Special business meetings may be called at any time when in the judgment of the business committee it is expedient, and they shall be called upon the written request of any five members of the church of legal age.

At least five days before each business meeting a call therefor, stating the object of the meeting, shall be mailed to each member of the church at his last known address.

XVI. The General Conference tax, and the necessary expenses of all delegations to councils and meetings of Association, shall be paid by the treasurer from the funds of the church.

XVII. These by-laws may be amended at an annual meeting; or at a special meeting, if notice of the proposed amendment has been given in the call.
